MEATLESS DAYS MANY IN GERMANY

"That's where the rich folks come in. They can hire maids who have no other work but to go through the meat raid daily."

"There are injustices galore about the food distribution in Berlin. That is why they have food riots in front of the Reichstag and in front of butcher shops."

been requested to split the checks whenever the payment was a large one, making two small checks in place of one large one. It was further found out that on at least one occasion Meeks was alleged to have endorsed the checks prior to payment. Also that the commission company had been requested to remit for the Lone Grove shipment to Lawton, Oklahoma.

On Tuesday when A. R. Meeks walked into the Lawton postoffice and mailed his mail he was placed under arrest by Sheriff Bailey and Special Officer Bailey.

In response to the query as to whether or not he knew Mullenhouse, the man arrested stated that he had known such a man but that he had not seen him for a year. An effort to refresh his memory brought forth the statement that he had not seen him for six months.

With A. R. Meeks in custody of the officers, they went to the home of his brother, who lived in another part of Lawton from the section wherein A. R. Meeks resided, and arrested the brother, G. F. Meeks. The wife of the last named was taken in an auto to the residence of her sister-in-law and the two women were left together. It was not until after this had been done that either of the prisoners asked the officers with what they were charged. The elder Meeks then asked the officers, "What are we charged with?" "With grand larceny," replied Sheriff Bailey. No further questions were asked.

The prisoners are the same men who drifted into Chickasha early last spring and were arrested by Sheriff Bailey on charges of having broken into a hay barn, stealing a two-horse wagon load of hay. The prisoners were brought before Judge T. P. Moore on this charge and were released upon order of the assistant county attorney for lack of sufficient evidence.

Following their release the Meeks brothers decamped from Chickasha. Following different clues, developing with the stealing of the hides Sheriff Bailey has been watching the Meeks, after having located them, and the result was in their arrest at Lawton.

The officers allege that one of the Meeks brothers is really the D. C. Mullenhouse to whom the checks from the commission house have been sent and in whose name the shipments of hides during the past several months have been made.

FAMILY ESCAPES WHEN LIGHTNING HITS HOME.

Minco, Okla., June 22.—The farm house occupied by Tog Farris and family east of Minco, was struck by lightning during a thunderstorm Tuesday morning and was burned to the ground with all contents.

Mr. Farris was at the Chiltwood home three-quarters of a mile away when the bolt struck, and seeing the flames burst from the roof ran home expecting to find his wife and children dead. Luckily, however, the members of the family were all in an adjoining room when the bolt of electricity entered the kitchen through the flue and no one was injured beyond being slightly stunned. There was no insurance.

Doc Farris, a brother, who had been working in a field near by, drove his team, hitched to a cultivator, to the scene of the fire, and the team, becoming frightened at the crowd which had gathered, ran away, demolishing the cultivator and crippling one of the mules.

BACK FROM NEW MEXICO.

Tom Bailey, accompanied by his family, arrived in Chickasha this morning from Vanhan, New Mexico. Mr. Bailey formerly lived at Rush Springs, but has been in New Mexico for some time. He stated this morning that agricultural conditions in New Mexico were far from good and that an almost complete failure would mark the season he has been in this year.

THROUGH TRAFFIC DELAYED.

The Rock Island reports a washout on the Arkansas river, near Wichita, which has delayed all through traffic from 8 to 10 hours. The firefly, due in Chickasha at 8:30 this morning, is running over 5 hours late, while No. 23 was annulled north of Caldwell and a stub run out of Caldwell south to Fort Worth. It is not known how bad the washout is, but it is thought to be a rather extensive one and the delay indicates that other roads must have been affected by it, thereby giving trouble in the matter of detouring.
